Republicans Expect to Carry at Least Two Hundred Districts.

WILSON'S DEFEAT IS CERTAIN

The Democrats, While Conceding Their Opponents Large Gains, Claim That They Will Control the House by a Small Majority-Rival Estimates from Various States-Republicans Expect to Have a Majority of Twenty-One in the House.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26. THE managers of the Republican congressional campaign committee count on securing 200 members of the next house. The Democrate, more conservative, estimate their membership to 190. The Republicans assert that so far from the Democrats securing so large a membership th r will not elect more than I40 members to the next house. The Democrats, on the other hand, concede the Redubli-cans by 158 members. The house of representatives consists of 356 mem-bers, of which 179 is a quorum. If the Republicans carry 200 districts, they will have a working majority of 31, while the Democrats will, if successful according to their calculations, control the house by a majority of 11. Neither the Democrats nor the Re-publicans believe that the Populists will cut much of a figure in the pending campaign. The Republican mana-gers, for instance, do not believe that a single Populist will be elected north of Mason and Dixon's line, and the Democrats account for only a total of ten in the entire United States. Oldly enough, there is absolutely no difference of opinion between the Republican and Democratic experts so far as the great majority of the con-gressional districts are concerned. In nearly all the Southern states solid Democratic delegations are conceded to the Democrats. Texas is regarded by the Republicans as debatable ground, their information being that the Populists in that state will make serious inroads into the Democrats. In Missouri, also, the Republicans expect, with the aid of the Popalists, to unseat at least four Democrats, in addition to carrying the three city districts of St. Louis and three others in the country.

The Demograts concede to the Republicans the entire delegation from lows, with the exception of Mr. Hayes' district, and some forty more congressmen in Maine, Oregon, Montana, Idaho, New Hampshire, North and South Dakots, Washington, Vermont and Pennsylvania. The Democrats do not anticipate electing a congressman in Kansas, but their esti-mates provide for the election of four Populists, while the Republicans claim the entire state. The defeat of Mr. Wilson, of West Virginia, the author of the tariff bill, is predicted by the Republicans by a majority of 1,200. The Republicans have some expectation also of carrying two other districts in the state. In Witconsin the Republican estimate is three Democrats and seven Republi-

YOUNG ELOPERS.

An Archbald Couple Step Over the State Line to Be Married. Special to the Scranton Tribune

ARCHBALD, Sept. 26.—There is so lit-tle of the romantic in the character of the young people here that it is re-freshing to tell of such an extraordinary occurrence as an elopement. A present society on the Ridge is talking about a young couple that dared a father's wrath and quietly went out of the state to be married. The parties were Miss Mary Walton, a charming young lady, and Louis Thomas, both of bom are well and widely known.

Miss Walton's parents objected to Mr. Thomas' attentions, but he was persistent and finally prevailed upon her to accompany him to New York state, where they were married early in the week. Miss Walton's parents knew nothing of the marriage until the couple returned. They are now disposed to take things philosophically, however, and all will be well.

CAUSE OF STRIKE.

Remarkable Statement of a Witness the Debs Case.

Washington, Sept. 26 — Messre Wright, Kernan and Worthington the commission appointed by the president to investigate the Chicago strike, today, after hearing two witaesses closed their hearings and will now devote their time to the preparation of the report, which, it is expected, will be ready for submission to the president by the middle of November.

Gustave Augerstein, of this city, representative of the Cromwellian league, the last witness, had been in Chicago at the time of the strike and had investigated it. He said its direct cause was the refusal of the Pullman company to pay its workmen living wages. . The real cause of the strike, however. was intemperance. This he knew to be of fact. He was positive that the leaders from Debs down had been under the influence of liquor for several

Miss Hayes' Brother and Lover Fought. Both Perhaps Fatally Hurt.

St. Josephs, Mo., Sept. 26.—Joseph Breech, in love with Miss Irene Hayes, near Wathens, formed a decided hatred for the young lady's brother, Bob Hayes, who did everything in his power to break up the match. The young men met near the home of Hayes and Hayes was centured for slandering Breech in the presence of friends of both the men.

A fight followed, during which Breech used a knife with probably fatal effect, and was shot twice in the region of the heart by Hayes. He will die.

DRAMATIC SCENE.

Mrs. Jones' Bitter Arraignment of Professor Swithin C. Shortlidge, on Trial for Murder.

MEDIA, Pa. Sapt. 26 .- The trial of Professor Swithin Shortlidge who shot and killed his young wife on Sunday, Dec. 31 last, was placed on trial today. The principal witness examined was Dr. Mary Jones, mother of the mur-dered bride. There was a stir among the spectators when Dr. Jones exclaimed: 'This man has killed my daughter; he has never had an insane day in his life. He called at my house in '92. I was very much surprised, as I never saw anything about him to commend. He came to see my daughter in New York and misrepresented himself. If he hadn't won her he would have shot her, for my precious girl was doomed by that man."

The witness was about to tell what she had heard of Professor Shortlidge, but the court interrupted her and instructed her to speak of what she knew to be true. "Murder was in his heart all the time," she continued, "and he arranged to kill me that morning he killed my daughter. I not only think that he did not love her, but was jealous of her ther stated that she opposed the marrises but attended the wedding. Chief-of-Police McNiff, who made the arrest, and several other witnesses testified to the wild expression on the face of the prisoner.

BABY AN HEIRESS

It Was Left with a Pittsburg Woman. Its Mother Dies in Brooklyn.

PITTSBERG, Sept. 26 -A waif said to be heiress to $125,000 was claimed yes-terday by a man who said he was a New York traveling salesman. The gentleman, who would not give his name, called on Mrs. Dora Henderson, of Lawrenceville, and told her that the 9 months-old girl baby left with her on June 17 last, was the sole heiress of its mother, who died in Brooklyn last week, leaving an estate valued at $125,000.

Mrs. Henderson, who received the babe from a young woman calling herself Helen Smith, turned the little one over to the department of charities some time ago because she was too poor to keep it. The Smith woman had agreed to pay $2 per week for its keeping, but after the first payment had alled to keep her promise. The de-partment will investigate.

WAS SHE HYPNOTIZED

Novel Theory for the Prosecution of Ethel Briggs' Abductors.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Sept. 26 -There will be an astonishing development in the case of Ethel Briggs, the 17-year old girl who was decoyed from home three weeks ago, kept a prisoner a day and a night and finally found by her father and a police officer.

It is believed that the girl was bypnotized by one of her abductors, who has made a practice of mesmerism, and the case will present features entirely new to medical jurisprudence.

SENATOR HILL IS NOMINATED

The Cleveland Democrats Unanimously Shrink from the Ordeal.

LOCKWOOD FOR SECOND PLACE

In the Face of His Announcement That He Was Not a Candidate, David B. Hill Received Every Vote Cast at the Democratic Convention For Governor of New York-The Usual Bluff Platform Adopted. Judge Gaynor Nominated for Court of Appeals.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 28, ESPITE his announcement that he was not a candidate, the Democratic convention today cast every vote for Senator Hill for governor and then nominated Lock-wood for lieutenant governor and Judge Gavnor for the court of appeals, and at 3 40 adjourned, The convention was called to order

DAVID B. HILL

Brown, chairman of the committee on permanent organization, reported in favor of continuing the temporary organization. This was adopted, and Senstor Hill remained chairman of the convention. Lieutenant Governor Sheehan, of Erie, reported the platform. Galen R. Hitt, of Albany, placed in nomination the name of John Boyd l'hatcher. When Mr Hita had finished, Eldyn Reynolds, of Allegheny, arose and said: "The united delegation of Allegheny county desires to place in nomination on their first and only choice, David B. Hill."

ENTHUSIASM UNBRIDLED. That was all he had time to say. The crowd went wild with enthusiasm. Men stood on their seats and waved their hats for three minutes. Senator Hill pounded with his gavel in vain. Finally Colonel Fellows, of New York, arose and the crowd subsided. Senator Hill then asked the in-dulgence of Colonel Fellows, and said: "I am grateful to the Democrate of the Empire state for the courtesy and kindness of the past, but I must say to you I cannot agree to be your candidate again for governor," onel Fellows then moved that the countles be called alphabetically. This was proceeded with. The Kingston and Montgomery counties named Hill amid cheers. Senator Guy rose when New York was called, and standing on a chair, said: "Mr. Chairmau, I rise to perform a duty which I have waited for some older Democrats from this county to perform. I am about to nominate for governor a man, the mention of whose name warms the heart of every true Democrat. He is the only man with whom we are beforehand sure of winning. I present the name of the chief exponent of Democratic principles in our party, David B. Hill." [Cheers and wild enthusiasm.]

After Senator Guy had finished Burke Coekran, of New York, arose and, climbing over the reporters' table to the platform, said in part: "When the life of a nation is at stake and the laws which govern its existence fail to control its destinies, the supreme will of the people is the only resort. At such times the report of the revolution is invoked. For the first time since the senior senator directed the affairs of the Democratic party of this state, I am in revolt against his ruling. I orge upon him his sense of duty to his party and place his name in nomination against his own desires. I demand that he lead us, and I now name him for governor." [Prolonged cheers]

Mr. Cockran then put the question to the convention, "Will you make the nomination unanimous? Everyone in the hall, delegates, specators and all, yelled "aye." Senator Hill refused to talk on his nomination for governor. All the Democratic leaders, however, say he will accept it. THE PLATFORM,

The following is the platform adopted: The Democratic party of New York con-gratulates the people of the state upon the restoration of business confidence and the improvement of industrial conditions which are following the repeal by a Demo-cratic congress of the panic bringing laws of its Republican predecessors.

Unsound financial legislation, driving out our gold and threating a single silver standard, a worse than war tariff, unnec standard, a worse than war tariff, unnec-essarily adding to the cost of living, diminishing federal revenues, and over-stimulating favored industries at the gen-eral expense, profligate expenditures, converting an assured treasury surplus into an alarming deficit. These were the ill-conceived and ill-fated products of Re-publican partisanship which brought the country to the verge of financial and in-dustrial ruin, which wiped out private dustrial ruin, which wiped out private fortunes, reduced incomes, turned tens of thousands of men out of work, closed fac-tariff schedules have been adjusted so that while affording ample safeguards for American labor they reduce the price to the people of necessities of life and encourage the promotion of industry by cheapening the cost of many raw materials used in manufactures.

AGREE WITH PRESIDENT CLEVELAND. The beneficial effects of the adoptions of The beneficial effects of the adoptions of these salutary measures of public policy are already plainly apparent. Each day gives evidence of returning presperity. We concur with President Cleveland that the new tariff law does not embody the full measure of tariff reform, but with him also we endorse its provisions for oheaper and free raw materials, and lower taxes, as a substantial recognition of Democratic principles, and while favoring, therefore, such wise modifications and re-adjustment of particular schedules by the enactment of separate bills, as future conditions and the fulfillment of Democratic pledges may require, we deprecate, conditions and the fulfillment of Demo-cratic pledges may require, we deprecate, pending a fair trial of the law by actual operation, and further general tariff re-vision, which under present conditions would be likely to retard improvement in business, and thereby prolong the evils brought upon the country by Republican

We reaffirm the declaration of principles contained in the Democratic National platform of 1892, and we reiterate the expension of the contained of the platform of 1892, and we reiterate the expension of the platform of 1892, and we reiterate the expension of the platform of 1892, and we reiterate the expension of the platform of 1892, and we reiterate the expension of the platform of 1892, and we reiterate the expension of the platform of 1892, and we reiterate the expension of the platform of th forms in favor of honest money, economy in public expenses, just and liberal pro-visious for all disabled union soldiers, their widows and dependents, and strict adherence to the true principles of civil service reform. We commend the efforts made by sena-tors and representative in congress from this state to avert the imposition of the present income tax we record our regret that the reform of the tariff to which all Democrats were committee was embar-rassed by engrafting on its previsions a direct tax to which many Democrats were rect tax to which many Democrats were strenuously opposed. We recognize in the trusts and combi-nations which are designed to enable capi-tal to secure more than its just share of the joint product of capital and labor a natural consequence of the prohibitive taxes, which prevent the free competition which is the life of honest trade, but believe their worst evils can be abated by law, and demand the rigid enforcement of the laws made to prevent and control them.

We heartily endorse the honest purpose and high ideals which have characterized the administration of President Cleveland, and we renew to him the pledge of our earnest support and in all his efforts to secure the enactment of Democratic meas-ures and the carrying out of Democratic

to say: We denounce as contrary to the spirit of our institutions any display of religious intollerance in political discussions. We deplore any attempt to proscribe candi-dates for office on the ground of religious belief by secret organizations or other-wise. The Democratic party, which has always stood for political and religious freedom, does not hesitate to condemn all efforts to create a distinction among citi-

worthy of an enlightened age and abhor-ent to the interest of American free men. We unreservedly indorse the popular, honest and intelligent administration of Governor Flower, and we record our ex-pression of regret at his refusal to accept a re-nomination. His close attention to public affairs has set a high standard for fu-ture governors and he will retire to private life at the conclusion of his term with the well earned praise of the people and of his

He was followed quickly by Fitzsimmons dressed in ring costume. The crowd went wild on the entrance of the champion and he bowed his acknowledgements. Fitz was the first to stop on the scales and tipped an even 1554. The crowd yelled frantically at this announcement of the weight. Creedon got on the scales and tipped the beam at 153. Time was called at 9 15. in the second round Creedon went down like a log and never stirred. Bob strolled over to his corner and quietly observed to Dwyer: "He won't come back." Referee Duffy counted the ten and out and the crowd went perfectly wild with excitement. Pandemonium broke loose and the referee called vainty for quiet. Creedon's seconds jumped into the ring and carried their principal to his corner.

The fight lasted just four minutes and forty seconds. It was fully five minutes before Creedon regained consciousness and he hardly realized where he was until long after the fight After quiet was restored Fitzsimpons issued a challenge to Champion James J. Terrible Gales Are Raging Along the Florida Coast.

THE ORANGE CROP IN DANGER

Indications That the Tempest Born in the Tropical Waters Will Sweep Over the Entire Atlantic Coast-A Jacksonville Hotel Unroofed-Much Damage to Property Elsewhere. Sea Faring People Advised to Stay

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 26, EOPLE who live along the Atlantie coast from Geo.gia to Massachusetts will tomorrow have I taste of a pretty lively gale, while the men who go out to sea in ships in defiance warning that is now two days old, will do so at the peril of their lives. The hurricane that was born somewhere in the tropical seas, was centered near Jacksonville this morning where the maxium velocity of the wind was reported by the weather bureau to be forty-six miles an hour, The disturbance has been slowly working up the coast of Florida and the indications now are that it will recurve from the coast near St. Augustine and put seaward with an increased forward movement in a north by north-easterly direction.

The storm travels something after the fashion of a billiard ball that has been driven with much "English" against the cushion. The moment it comes in contact with an obstruction its speed is accelerated. So this storm, meeting the land, has recurved, and its northward movement will be much more rapid, so rapid that New York will feel it by tomorrow night. Immediately after the morning reports were received at the weather bureau today, a message was sent to Gray Gables notifying the president of the conditions and advising him not to take a sail until after the storm had

The center of this storm, according to the latest calculation will be out at sea, but the coast cities, like Washington, Baltimore and New York, will feel much of the wind, although it is not expected to reach the velocity of the storm of last August when a record of fifty-eight miles was reached. The Everett hotel, the largest in the city, is unroofed and flooded with water. The unfinished Union depot is blown down and number are injured, but none killed. There is no communication from South Florida, but it is expected that many Indian River Orange groves are totally ruined. The streets of Jacksonville are flooded. The wind at the mouth of the river recorded sixty miles an hour. SAVANNAH, Ga., Sept. 26—The storm is increasing in violence. The barometer is still falling and the wind here and at Tybee island has attained a velocity of seventy-five miles an hour. It is feared that the quarantine station will be entirely destroyed. It is believed that there has been large loss of life at the sea islands.

The stir caused by the parade on Sunday seems to have been smoothed over. The fact that the bishop offici ated at the mass yesterday and was present at the convention in the afternoon is looked upon as evidence that he is not offended. This is more than can be said of laome of the visitors who had prepared for #the parade, however. The Cincinnati councils are said to have spent $900 for music for the merch, and the local members will have to pay out heavy bills to bands engaged but not needed.

HUNTING FOR TREASURE.

The Wreckage of the Lackawanna Avenue Fire Being Sieved.

At the dumping ground at Johnson's lake along North Washington avenue, where the debris from the Lackawann avenue fire is unloaded, a motley crowd of perhaps a few hundred persons spend each day digging in the refuse for articles of value.

Occasionally one of them finds something that has escaped the fury of the fire fiend and the subsequent vigilance of those engaged to assort anything valuable before loading the wagons. Then a gleam of satisfaction settles on the countenance of the lucky one and a corresponding betokening on the visages of the other more hapless companions.
